Singapore, 11th October 2012 - The Raffles Privato boutique in Singapore presents a brand new image at the Paragon. Officially opened on the 11th of October 2012 with its new look, it aims to help promising local fashion designers showcase and retail their own private labels.

Opened in May 2010, Raffles Privato was the collaboration between Paragon, Raffles Design Institute and Raffles Merchandising Institute. Depicted in the name of the retail concept, 'Privato' in Italian means "Private" and reflects the aspiration of featured designers in commercialising their designs. It also relates to the graduates' tutelage with Associate Professor Giuseppe (Joe) Spinelli (Principal, Raffles College of Higher Education), an Italian descendant.

Following the success of Raffles Privato Singapore - a self-billed 'incubator' concept store, Raffles Privato Shanghai was launched in early 2011 and showcases the cream of the graduate crop from Raffles Design Institute Shanghai.

The New Concept

The new retail concept offers a comfortable and interactive environment to loyal customers, as well as new ones who are after trendy outfits which accentuate their bodies and appreciation towards fashion. Raffles Privato Singapore offers an alternative shopping experience for locals and tourists searching for a unique blend of Singapore designs with an international appeal.

FACT SHEET

Raffles Privato is an incubator project between Raffles Design Institute, Raffles Merchandising Institute and Paragon Shopping Centre aimed at assisting up-and-coming designers to establish their own private label, in support of talented local designers and local fashion industry. Raffles Privato has been in operation for 2 years and has featured works of 22 successful Raffles Designers. Located on Level 3 of the luxury shopping mall, the store is managed by students from Raffles Merchandising Institute, as part of the internship programme.
